October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for October:

For a shared mission: We pray that the Church continue to sustain in all ways a Synodal lifestyle, as a sign of co-responsibility, promoting the participation, the communion and the mission shared among priests, religious and lay people.

This Sunday: 29th Sunday in Ord. Time

Is 53:10-11; Heb 4:14-16; Mk 10:35-45

In the first reading, the prophet Isaiah prophesies about the servant who justifies many through his suffering. In the Letter to the Hebrews, the author writes that we have a great high priest who sympathizes with our weaknesses. In the Gospel, Jesus says that the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve.

Next Sunday: 30th Sunday in Ord. Time

Jer 31:7-9; Heb 5:1-6; Mk 10:46-52

Jeremiah prophesies that the Lord will bring back his people from the land to which they were exiled. The author of Hebrews explains that just as the high priest can act as such only if he has been called by God to do so, so also Christ acts as our high priest because God has appointed him to do so. In the Gospel, Jesus restores the sight of Bartimaeus.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS CORNER

It is with great joy that I can inform all knights, parishioners, and those who have prayed for baby Zoey's healing that she came home on Friday, Oct 11th. She looks good and was getting accustomed to her house.

She still has a long way to go as she still has a feeding tube and other issues that will be addressed in the future. We ask all of you to keep praying for her healing. Thank you Lord for laying your healing hands on Zoey and giving her a chance to be able to live through her disease. God is great! Thank you all once again. Tom, 618-789-0337

Mercy Minute

Each week, a short excerpt from St. Faustina's Diary, in which she recorded our Lord's messages to her about His Divine Mercy:

"Humiliation is my daily food...At those times when I suffer much, I try to remain silent, as I do not trust my tongue, which at such moments is inclined to talk for itself, while its duty is to help me praise God for all the blessings and gifts which He has given me". (Diary, 92, Part 1).

FORMATION

CATHOLIC BASICS & Q&A

Our RCIA/Formation team is hosting two Thursday nights the next few weeks for families and individuals who are already baptized and are coming into the Catholic faith this fall. We'll be covering Catholic basics plus a Q&A "Ask Me Anything" session each night. ALL are invited - even life-long Catholics that just want to learn more, brush up, or ask a question that's been bugging them for a long time.

Thursday in the Parish Life Center at 6:30 p.m.

Contact the parish office for a recording of the topics Deacon Michael covered on 10/17: liturgy & the liturgical year, a survey of the Sacraments and some of the history behind the development of our faith along those lines; Doctrinal & Church authority, Marian theology, and a survey of moral theology & more challenging moral topics.

6th-8th GRADERS: JOIN US FOR FIRM FOUNDATIONS

6th-8th graders of the parish are invited to join Deacon Michael for a special 3-week series, Firm Foundations, this October.

Our youth will be introduced to basic tenets of Christian discipleship, encouraged to examine obstacles in their lives that prevent them from living out these principles, and given tools to begin to implement them in their daily lives.

Firm Foundations will be held from 9:15-10:15 in the Harmony Room on Sunday, October 20 & 27.

CELEBRATING SUNDAYS FOR CATHOLIC FAMILIES

This is from 'Celebrating Sunday for Catholic Families' by Kerri Mecke-Lazano. Please use it to help your family get more out of the Mass each week!

HEARING THE WORD: Mark 10:35, 37-45

REFLECTING ON THE WORD:

What are your images of authority? How have they been shaped by the way your parents raised you? Speaking to his apostles (who should know better, but nevertheless are trying to elbow their way into positions of power and prestige) Jesus negatively describes a type of authority that "lord(s) it over" others and makes itself "felt." How familiar that image is to us! Are we tempted to embody that in our homes? "It shall not be so among you," Jesus says. What is Jesus' alternative, and how might that look in our relationships with one another?

ON THE WAY TO MASS

What makes someone a good leader? When someone is in charge, what kind of person would you want them to be?

ON THE WAY HOME FROM MASS

Jesus said some surprising things about how people should act if they want to be considered great. What does he say makes a person stand out among others?

LIVING THE WORD

Start serving your loved ones by building each other up. During a dinner this week, take turns saying something you admire and wish to imitate about each person in your family.

WEEKLY STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

“For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many” - Mark 10:45

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God’s love and mercy? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from “I want more” to “thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share”. This change in perspective will bring you joy through service to others. Pray daily to become less self-centered and to become more God-centered.

My Parish Prayer

Almighty God, My parish is composed of people like me. I help make it what it is. It will be friendly if I am. It will be holy if I am. Its pews will be filled if I help fill them. It will do great work if I work. It will be prayerful if I pray. It will make generous gifts to many causes if I am a generous giver. It will bring other people into its worship if I invite and bring them. It will be a parish family of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, and of compassion, charity, and mercy if I - who make it what it is - am filled with these same qualities. Therefore, with the help of God, I will dedicate myself to the task of being all the things I want my parish to be.

SACRAMENTS

Reconciliation: In addition to Confessions offered from 3-4 p.m. on Saturdays, you can also schedule an individual time for Reconciliation.

Anointing of the Sick: Appropriate for any upcoming surgery, prolonged illness, or in the event of emergency or danger of death. Please call the office if you or a loved one needs to be anointed.

Infant & Child Baptism: For children under the age of 8, please submit the forms at stelizabethgc.org/baptism at least a month before your desired date. For questions or emergencies, please contact the Parish Office.

Matrimony: To begin preparation for Holy Matrimony, please contact the parish office to set up initial appointments and preparation at least six months (recommended twelve months) before your desired date. At least an introductory interview must be completed before a date can be set.

Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, first Holy Communion) for children 8 and over, or for adults: Contact the parish office.

PASTORAL CARE

Entering the Church: If you are new to the Catholic faith and interested in learning more about the church or about entering the church, welcome! Contact the parish office for a meeting with Father Alfred or Deacon Michael.

Communion to the Homebound: If you or a family member are, or are going to be, homebound, whether at home or in a care facility, please notify the parish office. Medical and care facilities are unable to inform us of their Catholic residents and patients. We would be happy to arrange to visit and bring you Holy Communion. Please contact the parish office for arrangements.

Declarations of Nullity: In some cases, a man or a woman desires healing through a declaration by a Church tribunal (a Catholic Church court), which does not deny that a relationship existed, but simply states that the relationship was missing something that the Church requires for a valid marriage, falling short of at least one of the essential elements required for a binding union. (Commonly called an ‘annulment.’) Advocates are available for those needing assistance with declarations of nullity. Call the parish office to set up an appointment.
