OCTOBER PRAYERS AND FEASTS

This week at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church and School was a beautiful blend of reverence and joyous celebration, perfectly captured in the collage above. The images highlight the parish and school's deep faith in praying a Living Rosary, where students essentially formed the beads, symbolizing their collective prayers and commitment to the Blessed Mother during this month dedicated to the Holy Rosary. Other photos are of the school's celebration of the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, patron saint of animals and the environment. These heartwarming pictures feature a variety of cherished pets—dogs, cats, and perhaps a small bird or guinea pig—lined up with their student and parent owners for the annual pet blessing. The smiles on the faces of the children and the calm, sometimes curious, demeanor of their beloved animals truly embody the Franciscan spirit of creation and kinship. Together, the photographs tell a story of a week filled with spiritual devotion, communal connection, and a joyful appreciation for all of God's creatures.

Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" Luke 17:18

Most of us live relatively "easy" lives. We have food, shelter, clothing, and money. We go on vacation every year and own a car or two. Most of us take this all for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn't this be the other way around? Take time every day and thank God for all He has given you and discern how He is calling you to share your gifts.

My Parish Prayer Almighty God, My parish is composed of people like me. I help make it what it is. It will be friendly if I am. It will be holy if I am. Its pews will be filled if I help fill them. It will do great work if I work. It will be prayerful if I pray. It will make generous gifts to many causes if I am a generous giver. It will bring other people into its worship if I invite and bring them. It will be a parish family of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, and of compassion, charity, and mercy if I - who make it what it is - am filled with these same qualities. Therefore, with the help of God, I will dedicate myself to the task of being all the things I want my parish to be. Bless my journey Lord God, that I might follow Jesus and build the Church for your glory. Amen.
